BETHESDA HOSPITAL EXCELLED ON NATIONAL BATHO PELE EXCELLENCE

Bethesda hospital has recently crowned with the prestigious awards during the 1st National Batho Pele Excellence Awards held at Gallagher Estate during the Gala Dinner event by Department of Public Service Administration.

Minister Lindiwe Sisulu commended public servants for making it possible for South Africans by delivering services with pride and passion. The Minister congratulated all the winners in particular the biggest winner of the evening Dr Kelly Gate the Medical Manager for Bethesda hospital who won the Best Overall Batho Pele Public Servant of the Year Award and the Gold for Best Public Service Leader of the Year. The two awards come with R20 000 price, a scholarship to study internationally and a holiday package.

Dr K Gate and Minister Lindiwe Sisulu: DPSA

Minister Lindiwe Sisulu stated that the awards would be extended to cover the entire public service because they are the key & motivation to the public service and will be used to share good practice that will keep public service a responsible environment where citizens can get excellent service.

Bethesda hospital has raised the flag of KwaZulu Natal in ensuring that better life is achieved. The achievement of the hospital is a great symbol of consistency in displaying & modeling an attitude of the best practices in the implementation of Batho Pele principles, patient rights and service charter.

Bethesda Shine at Batho Pele Awards

“We are humbled as the hospital to receive such awards from DPSA and it makes us believe that this government means business by recognizing the best effort even in the core of the profound rural communities. It makes us even more proud to be an under resourced hospital but able to claim such a prestigious award. The award is dedicated to our clients & community members whom always believed that Bethesda is the best hospital to seek help from. We are continuously going to fulfill the mandate of the Department of Health to ensure that people are treated with dignity and respect they deserve as citizens of the country. We are very proud of Dr Gate and the whole team. Well done guys, keep up the good work”, said Mrs Philile Khumalo hospital CEO.
