

COSH Long Service Awards Ceremony

Mr Madondo referring to his well prepared speech for the day!!!!

Mr HJ Human (CEO) handing an awards to Dr van der Merwe and Mrs Kwili Maxie Ngobese

IT was a wonderful day at Church of Scotland Hospital when more than 120 staff members received their long service award certificate. This event organized by Sindi Sibiya and Mrs Dube and other task team members happen on the 10th August 2006 at Abathembu Hall in Tugela Ferry. The purpose of the event was to honor those devoted employees who have spend more than 20 years serving the department of health. Amongst our guests were the families of the retired, resigned and deceased employees who died before receiving their awards and those

It is important to respect workplace and treat your work like a business who didn't attend the event.

According to the Human Resource Manager Mr Ntuli due to a number of reasons this event was postponed which created a delay. Amongst our guests was the district office official Ms Fikile Ngema and Ms Dudu Khoza from Madadeni College of Nursing.

Our distinguished guest speaker for the day was the local motivational and well-known community member Mr Madondo. In his speech he accentuated the importance of respecting job and the meaning of the employed in the public service. He also reminded existing employees to keep up their good work and excel in their work to ensure excellent service delivery.

The CEO Mr HJ Human expressed his gratitude to the task team and encouraged their continuous support in all hospital projects. The hospital choir sang their traditional tunes accompanied by well choreographed dance. Delicious food was well prepared and guests helped themselves.

On the 14 November 2006, children from Church of Scotland Paediatric Ward received toys donated by the South African Redcross and East Coast Radio. Children were very delighted to receive these gifts as they show that there are people who care for them. This ward accommodates more than 70 children including those who were abandoned by their parents at birth.

The Public Relations Officer, Sindy Sibuya delivered them to the ward with the help of ward supervisors.

On behalf of Church of Scotland Hospital and Paediatric ward, we would like to express thanks to South African Redcross and East Coast Radio and for your support, love and care.

God Bless
