Employee Recognition Awards

The hospital held employee recognition and long service awards on 23 November 2022. This event created a lot of excitement among all staff especially those who were receiving awards and appreciated for long service in the department.

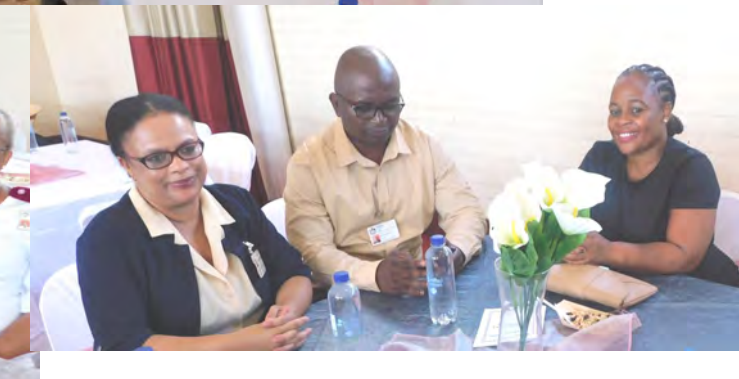

Jubilee Hall was transformed and attendees were in awe of how beautiful it was. For some guests and attendees, this was once in a life time event where they felt seen and appreciated as employees of both King Edward VIII & St Aidans Hospital.

The planning team went the extra mile in ensuring that the event becomes a success. They had been working very hard in preparation and to see the excitement in all who attended gave comfort that all their hard work paid off. The bar has been set and there is more pressure to deliver on an elevated level in the next year.
