Woza Ngikuhlebele / Come lets gossip

On the 13 September 2006 at around 6pm I received a call inviting me to a little get-together ( As I was told ) To my surprise when I got there bekunephathi ziwa ( there was a party) Gues who was celebrating his birthday, Mr. Magubane.

I tried to ask around how old the man was turning and no-one gave me a correct answer and then I decided to ask him mathupha, " Bab' Nkomose how old are you turning ?

"Ha ha hah Ndabezitha I'm only celebrating 21 Years working at Nkandla Hospital " he answered.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY NKOMOSE AND MAY YOU WORK ONOTHER 21 YEARS MORE

MR. A. B. Magubane

NATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY AT NKANDLA HOSPITAL

The 09th of August in South Africa is observed as a National Women's Day, It is celebrated all around South Africa.

Nkandla Hospital hosted this day by having a Women's Prayer, this prayer was blessed with the presence of the community members, hospital staff members at all levels, this event was led by the church leaders from the local congregations.

Mrs. Buthelezi who is a staff member was honoured with task of being a Speaker of the day, On her speech she spoke deeply about being a role model women, the strength of a persevering woman, she also shared a verse with us as well.

Choruses were the order of the day and Mr. Lwazi gave us a poem praising the strength and the significance of a women.

Next year we will do it again, if you missed out this time be there next time.
