Othobothini CHC staff members started a New Year in a high note whereby they gathered and inviting God to lead them while they are serving the community. The team appreciated the initiative took by the management for hosting such and amazing special day of prayer.

Mrs D.S Mkhwanazi (CEO) shared the word of God during the prayer Isaiah 40. She encouraged the staff to continue doing well and not forget that God is the pillar of their strength.

Let's run the race set before us and never faint concluded the CEO.

Indeed, the day was filled with joy, peace and happiness as it was remarkable.
