QUALITY DAY NEWS

Untunjambili had hosted a Quality Day & Batho Pele awards on 14 November 2024.

The QAM-Ms L.F Gwala together with the planning Team had worked tirelessly to make sure that the day become a success. It was meant to encourage the staff that their excellency in rendering of service is acknowledged.

Communications Team lead by Mrs SGW Bonongwe had also rewarded those who have received more compliments from clients. The aim was to ensure that the customer care is standardized to whoever enters the gates of Untunjambili Hospital. An appreciation goes to some employees & Gijima Security Company who sponsored the event.

UNTUNJAMBILI HOSPITAL EMPLOYEES GIVING BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

The employees of Untunjambili Hospital staff had donated shoes to Khatha Primary School Learners on the 11th of March 2025. This an annual initiative.

Ms. C.N. Ndadane-CEO of Untunjambili Hospital had established, implemented, and led by example the Project of Giving Back to the Community every year during the beginning of the year. This year 2025, Khatha Primary School was the chosen. The iLembe Health shared some challenges of working in such deep rural area. The feedback moment was very emotional when they shared that it was the first time they are visited by another Department for this kind of support. The Learners and teachers were overwhelmed and they even sang a nice song as a sign of appreciation.

"KEEP UP THE WORK UNTUNJAMBILI HOSPITAL STAFF, YOUR GENEROUSY IS ACKNOWLEDGED"

District Team, Untunjambili CEO and some EXCO members Mr N. Sithole Ward 01 Councillor who is the Chairperson of Ward 01 War Room were part of the Team that visited the school. Mrs Khoza the Khatha Primary School Principal and Mr Zungu who is a School Security had

BIDDING FAREWELL TO PHC SUPERVISOR-SR NP NGUBANE

Untunjambili Hospital DMN, AMN's and OMN's had celebrated the depart of Sr. N.P. Ngubane- PHC Supervisor. She has been part of Untunjambili Hospital for 38 years. She served Untunjambili Community and the surrounding areas . She worked and never faced any disciplinary charges until she finished the service. She was taken out to the restaurant for a buffet. Her daughter Zimbili Ngubane who accompanied her was overwhelmed by the way her mother was celebrated by her colleagues.

Sr. N.P Ngubane PHC Supervisor started serving Untunjambili Hospital from

16/06/1988– 1994 as staff nurse from 1995 to 2005/07/1, she then got a position as a Professional Nurse and then she moved to CNP post in 2006/07/01– 2008/06/31 and she got her last position as an OMN until her retirement time 31 March 2025
