THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH WAS MADE PROUD BY ITSHELEJUBA HOSPITAL (IN PONGOLA) FOR WINNING THE PREMIER'S SERVICE EXCELLENCE AWARDS – SILVER TROPHY

The KwaZulu-Natal Premier Sibusiso Ndebele bestowed the Silver Award to one of the rural hospitals at the Premier's Service Excellency Awards function held in Durban on Friday, 11 April 2008.

The MEC for Health, Ms Neliswa Nkonyeni, was present to congratulate the winners at this prestigious function to recognise the good work and commitment to excellence in service delivery. This is very important at the time when the hard work of health care workers receives the wrath of those who do not understand the challenges that our health system is facing.

Itshelejuba Hospital is along the Swaziland border and serves a number of Swazi citizens who cannot receive health care in their own country.
