BREASTFEEDING AWARENESS

Miss Z. Mzileni—Community Service Officer: Dietetics

On the 07th of August 2024 the Catherine Booth Hospital held Breastfeeding Awareness under the 2024 Theme: Closing The Gap—Breastfeeding Support For All. The awareness started by a march from the Maternity department to the Out Patients Department where the awareness was held.

The support breastfeeding awareness is an important public health initiative that focuses on educating and encouraging mothers about the benefits of breastfeeding for both child and the mother. Breast milk help and protect the child against a number of diseases, and improve immune system of the newly born babies, help the baby to gain weight at high rate, provide the ideal nutrition for supporting healthy growth and development.

During the presentation, speakers took turns giving out information on various topics around breastfeeding which included the following: Recommended diets for breastfeeding mothers, pregnancy & HIV/AIDS, and best breastfeeding positions.

ENSINGWENI CLINIC NUTRITION WEEK

On the 20th of September 2024, Ensingweni Clinic hosted nutrition week campaign at the facility's staff room. The main target audience for the campaign was the staff members; and one of the activities in the programme was cooking / food preparation competition. The clinic's staff members were in groups and each group prepared a different healthy meal—breakfast, lunch, snack and fruit platter.

MEET THE NEWLY APPOINTED HOSPITAL ADVISORY BOARD

The Catherine Booth Hospital is pleased to announce the newly appointed hospital board with a term from 01 November 2023—31 October 2026. The hospital board serves as a bridge between the facility and the public as these members are from all wards from the catchment area. If the community have any issue / concern / question about the hospital, the advisory board should be the first stop.
