NURSES DAY CELEBRATION

Hlabisa hospital nurses did not want to be left behind in celebrating the special day “ THE INTERNATIONAL NURSES DAY”

They honored Florence Nightingale who is the founder modern nursing professional nursing. The nurses renewed their vows of saving lives, they did this at Hlabisa Hospital (Nurses Home Recreational Hall). They lighted candles as a way of re-accepting the challenges they are facing in the nursing profession.

Hlabisa nurses did a little marching holding the flag to embrace their hard working as they are saving the lives of people .This is an important day for them

WOMEN'S DAY EVENT

Women's day is celebrated on the 9th of August every year, it is a day where women are recognized and celebrated for playing various roles in life. It is a day when everyone shows appreciation, love and respect towards women. Women have rare spirit which makes them excel in their fields.

Hlabisa Hospital did not want to be left behind, they also celebrated women's day on the 30th of August 2023, women of Hlabisa Hospital came together to remember their struggle for peace, justice, equality and development.

The dress code of the day was a pinafore, doek and heels, many may ask them selves why a pinafore, a pinafore represents a mixture of women's capabilities and changing place in society while also keeping the beauty and identity of women's fashion.

DEMENTIA AWARENESS

Dementia is one of the disease that make people have memory loss , Hlabisa Hospital decide to invite Mpembeni community and educate them about this illness so that they will have more understanding about it, because there are many cases where you find an elderly person beaten to death because they were found in the neighbor's yard and people be quick to say that they were there for witchcraft reasons. Only to find that they are suffering from this illness, they forgot where their home is.
