

KZN Department of Health granted interim interdict re: Emergency Medical Services personnel

MEDIA STATEMENT

02 APRIL 2015

STARTS

The KwaZulu-Natal Department of Health has been granted an urgent interim interdict in the Labour Court today, ordering all Emergency Medical Services personnel who have stayed away from work to return to work with immediate effect.

The strike action, which the respondents have embarked on since 31 March 2015, is declared unlawful and unprotected.

The respondents are interdicted from participating in, promoting, or inciting such unlawful strike action. The respondents should comply with the conditions of employment with immediate effect.
