

A job well done!

“Despite the fact that any hospital has mortalities and errors; however, it is true that some staff members do the best they can to achieve the excellent service for the Department of Health.” said Mrs. T.M. Ngqabayi (Monitoring and Evaluation).

This was during the Thanksgiving event held at Mseleni Hospital on 20th March 2013. The purpose of the event was to thank all staff for their tireless work during the Premier’ Service Excellence Awards competition where Mseleni Hospital was crowned Silver Award as Mosvold Hospital achieved position one walking away with Gold Award in the competition for the KwaZulu Natal Department of Health.

Mrs S.F. Mthimkhulu (Deputy District Manager: M&E) commended Mseleni Hospital Management and staff for a job well done. Staff members were awarded on different categories ranging from punctuality, reporting of adverse events and compliance to Batho Pele Principles. By the way, the event was part of implementing one of Batho Pele principles “Encouraging Innovation and Rewarding Excellence”.

Staff receiving awards from the management

The dance, the music, the excitement, the celebration

Mseleni staff during the thanksgiving ceremony