

health

Department:
Health
PROVINCE OF KWAZULU-NATAL

NORTHDALE HOSPITAL CELEBRATES NURSES DAY 2013

In commemoration of International Nurses Day 2013, Northdale Hospital Event's Committee organized an event which was held on the 17th of May 2013. "My Profession My Pride" was the adopted theme for the day. The purpose of the event was to acknowledge the hard work done by nurses. To encourage these beautiful souls to continue with their unflinching love and compassion for humanity.

It was a beautiful event which was well driven by Mr. Sukan Pillay— Assistant Manager Nursing at Primary Health Care. Mrs. Zanele Ndwandwe—Chief Executive Officer of Edendale Hospital was the guest speaker of the day, she encouraged nurses to "light their candles and revive their love for the profession"

The Hospital choir, Demonique and Bollywood dancers kept the guests entertained. Each and every nurse was given a coffee mug as a souvenir for this celebration. "We would like to thank all our sponsors for their support. The events committee's effort did not go unnoticed, thank very much to each and everyone of you." Mrs. Joyce Webster Nursing Ser-

Mrs. Zanele Ndwandwe—CEO at Edendale Hospital gave an inspirational speech as a Guest Speaker for the day.

Mrs. Felicity DuPreez—the CEO for Northdale Hospital, welcoming guest at the beginning of the program.

Above :Mr. B Castelyne, SL. Mkhize, L Hadden, J. Pillay and Matron Ndlela and other nurses that led the reciting of the Nursing pledge.

Below: It was like they are saying “this little light of mine I am gonna let it shine” during candle lighting.

Prizes awaiting winners for raffles that were aimed fund raising for the day.

Candle lighting was done as a custom in the Nursing Professions.

Ms. Rachel Soobiah—hospital Board Chairperson handing a foot spa ( raffle prize) to Nurse Mdakane.

Hospital Choir gave an outstanding performance. The did traditional dance, their outfits can tell you lots.