3 YEAR PREVENTATIVE MAINTENANCE CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS

UMGUNGUNDLOVU HEALTH DISTRICT –
Pietermaritzburg, Richmond, New Hanover and Howick

Prepared By: Mr E ZULU

JULY 2021

1. INTRODUCTION

HVAC system refers to the Heating and Ventilation Air Conditioning (HVAC) System. The goal of the heating, ventilating, and air conditioning system is to create and maintain a comfortable environment within a building. A comfortable environment, however, is not just limited to temperature and humidity but also includes the air movement, fresh air and cleanliness. An air-conditioning system, must accomplish four objectives simultaneously which are to: control air temperature; control air humidity; control air circulation; and control air quality.

A heating system ("H" in HVAC) is designed to add thermal energy to a space or building in order to maintain some selected air temperature that would otherwise not be achieved due to heat flows (heat loss) to the exterior environment. A ventilating system ("V") is intended to introduce air to or remove air from a space -- to move air without changing its temperature. Ventilating systems may be used to improve indoor air quality or to improve thermal comfort. A cooling system ("C" is not explicitly included in the HVAC acronym) is designed to remove thermal energy from a space or building to maintain some selected air temperature that would otherwise not be achieved due to heat flows (heat gain) from interior heat sources and the exterior environment. Cooling systems are normally considered as part of the "AC" in HVAC; AC stands for air-conditioning.

To ensure proper operation, reliability, availability and long term in-service health of the HVAC system, it is very crucial that the system be properly maintained as per the manufacturers' recommendations.

1.1 INSTALLATIONS IN UMGUNGUNDLOVU HEALTH DISTRICT FORENSIC MORTUARIES

UMGUNGUNDLOVU HEALTH DISTRICT has Pietermaritzburg MLM as the biggest MLM in the district. This mortuary has an HVAC System and 22 split units installed. The 22 split air-conditioning units are supplying conditioned air to the offices. The air handling unit at this facility is the air cooled type, has a chiller plant and supplies conditioned air to the autopsy room. There is a VRV system as well (Admin block).

The Richmond MLM, on one hand, has four (2) split air conditioned unit supplying conditioned air to the Park Home that is used as administrative block, and one (1) in the mortuary.

New Hanover MLM, on one hand, has four (4) split air conditioned unit supplying conditioned air to the Park Home that is used as administrative block. VRV system for Autopsy area only.

Howick MLM, on one hand, has four (5) split air conditioned unit supplying conditioned air to the Park Home that is used as administrative block and Mortuary block.

1.2 HVAC SYSTEM

1.3 HVAC SYSTEMS MAINTENANCE

There are two (2) fundamental types of HVAC System maintenance that the successful contractor must perform, namely "preventative" and "reactive/corrective" maintenance. The contractor must work more towards maximum preventative maintenance, preferable to maintain 80:20 ratio (preventative to reactive) at all times.

1.4 PREVENTATIVE MAINTENANCE

This type of maintenance is best defined as: regular activities performed on the equipment to keep it functional in order to prevent failure. This involves inspection, condition monitoring, testing, cleaning etc. In order to achieve the maximum life of the HVAC system and associated accessories, attention must be focused on preventative maintenance. Each of the prescribed inspection and test activities, services and reactive maintenance must be conducted by a competent person and records must be kept in a dedicated "file". The contractor must develop inspection and test, services and maintenance plans documents based on the following guide activities (with additions welcomed) for the approval by DoH Engineer within 14 days of the contract establishment.

1.5 REACTIVE MAINTENANCE/MARK-UP ON MATERIALS, SPARE PARTS, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

The reactive maintenance is a triggered by a failure that usually requires that repairs be effected. This type of maintenance is best defined as: that maintenance activity that has to be performed when the equipment has already failed/broken to bring it in the serviceable operational state. In case of works needing materials or spares to do repairs, for completion of the allocated work, a maximum mark-up on the supplier's nett invoiced value, before the addition of VAT of materials and spare parts is allowed.

NB: Approval for specifications of the items to be used and spares shall be obtained prior to the purchase of such items. This type of maintenance will be conducted by a successful Contractor on a cost-proven basis where parts, travelling and labour rates will be considered. A provisional sum will be set aside per facility.

Mark up on bought out items
20% Maximum for value R0.00 to R299 999.99,
